

Free Workshop

Funding College: Important Financial Information to Know

---

Sponsored by the Center for the Advancement of Language and Literacy

Wednesday, November 9, 2011

6:30-8:30 PM

Chartwell School, McMahan Hall

2511 Numa Watson, Seaside, CA 93955

About the Workshop:

In this session, Steve Shapiro will discuss the important information parents need to know about funding college and how to make wise financial choices regarding this important educational decision.

About the Presenter:

Steve Shapiro, CPA, CFP, is committed to helping families send their kids to college -- without breaking the bank or risking their own retirement. Steve is a member of the National College Advocacy Group. He has completed a rigorous series of courses to learn the best ways of obtaining college funding that fits a client's income, goals and lifestyle, and he remains current with Continuing Education courses every year. Steve has always been motivated to help individuals and small business owners keep more of their money through legal and ethical means. He has been a CPA since 1982, an Investment Advisor since 1990, and a Certified Financial Planner since 2002. He became interested in planning for college in 2002, when his own two children were in high school. "I feel my clients' pain," he says. "I know just what they're going through."

About Chartwell's FREE workshops:

The Chartwell School's Outreach Program, the Center for the Advancement of Language and Literacy, is pleased to offer a series of FREE educational workshops about best practices in learning and literacy. Funding for these workshops is generously provided by: Monterey Peninsula Foundation, Community Foundation for Monterey County, Jack Kent Cooke Foundation, and the Harden Foundation.

For More Information, Please Contact:

Kristen Atkins at 831.394.3468 extension 1012 or katkins@chartwell.org